

You can save by using our preferred network lab, Quest Diagnostics™ or other network labs such as BioReference

Save big on lab services

Just make sure all your testing is done at a lab in the Aetna network.

Preferred network lab

Quest Diagnostics is our national preferred lab. You can save when you use them. Quest Diagnostics and their affiliates offer a wide range of testing services — from routine blood tests to complex gene-based, cardiology and molecular testing, including prescription drug monitoring. The following Quest Diagnostics affiliates are also preferred labs in our network:
